

The Honorable Georgette Mosbacher, CEO and President of Borghese, Inc. to Receive Special “Founder’s Award” at 17th Annual HFC New York Charity Gala

New York - February 4, 2015 - During the 17th Annual New York Open Your Heart to the Children Benefit the Honorable Georgette Mosbacher, CEO & President of Borghese, Inc., will be presented with the Hedge Funds Care/Help For Children (HFC) Founder’s Award. It is given in recognition of her work spearheading, the Manhattan Children’s Advocacy Center in 1995, now known as The New York Center for Children, a privately financed, tax-exempt charity dedicated to assisting abused children and their families. Ms. Mosbacher is a successful business leader, nationally recognized political activist and fundraiser, public speaker, author and an advocate for women, children and our Military Veterans and their families.

The annual HFC New York benefit, one of the hedge fund industry’s premier charity events, will take place on Thursday, March 5, 2015 at Cipriani 42nd Street (110 East 42nd Street, NYC). The event will unite 1,000 hedge fund executives for an evening that will feature cocktails, hors d’oeuvres, networking, a silent auction, and live entertainment. Proceeds will fund programs focused on the prevention and treatment of child abuse in New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut.

Co-chairs for this year’s gala are Gerry Polizzi, Managing Director at UBS, Asli Ay, Managing Partner at US Policy Metrics, and Steven Nadel, Partner at Seward & Kissel.

A limited number of tickets, sponsorship packages, and program journal ads are still available. For inquiries please contact Valerie Giannuzzi at vgiannuzzi@hfc.org.

About Help For Children

Help For Children (“HFC”), also known as Hedge Funds Care, is an international charity dedicated to funding programs focused on preventing and treating child abuse. Since its inception in 1998, HFC has awarded over 1,100 grants totaling more than $41 million. HFC is the only grant making public charity that focuses exclusively on funding this cause. Funds for HFC are raised through events in more than 11 cities in the US, UK, Canada, Ireland, Hong Kong and the Cayman Islands, and are granted to community organizations addressing child abuse. HFC has occasionally singled out prominent individuals for their outstanding charitable support. Event honorees have included Bruce Richards, CEO of Marathon Asset Management, Michael Vranos, CEO of Ellington Management, Kenneth Tropin, Chairman of Graham Capital Management, and Michael Novogratz, President of Fortress Investment Group. Previous Founders Award recipients include Lee Daniels, director of “Precious”, Sen. Scott Brown, author of “Against All Odds”, his own gripping biography of abuse, and former New York Yankees Manager Joe Torre whose own foundation addresses child abuse and domestic violence.
